Goose Watch Winery's Classic Cream Sherry Rated 100 Points at the San Francisco International

Goose Watch Winery is proud to recognize its Classic Cream Sherry that was one of its top award winners at the recent San Francisco International Wine Competition (SFIWC).

A remarkable array of wines were judged at the 34th year of the SFIWC, including 4,569 products from 26 states and 31 countries, breaking the competition's record from previous years.

Goose Watch Winery claimed a double gold medal and an impressive rating of 100 points for its Classic Cream Sherry. This brings this bottling to a total of nine gold medals including another double gold from the 2013 Monterey Wine Competition and a "Best Dessert Wine" from the Florida State International.

The 2013 Diamond was another gold medalist at this California competition. Goose Watch Winery won an additional two silver medals and six bronze medals.

Goose Watch Winery is located at 5480 Route 89 in Romulus, NY on the Cayuga Lake Wine Trail. The tasting room and gift shop are open year round with special winter hours until April 1st. For more information on awards and products you can visit their website at www.GooseWatch.com.
