GOOSE WATCH WINERY WINS AGAIN!!

Goose Watch Winery was recently awarded medals from The Pacific Rim International, Finger Lakes International and Great American Wine Competitions.

The Pacific Rim International Wine Competition was founded in 1985 by a group of winemakers, vintners and educators passionate about making great wines accessible to the public. The Pacific Rim Competition is held at the historic National Orange Show Fairgrounds in San Bernardino, California for two days in every April. Goose Watch received a gold medal for their 2016 Traminette, and silvers for Pinot Noir Brut Rosé, 2017 Diamond, 2016 Lemberger and the 2018 Cabernet Franc Rosé.

The Finger Lakes International Wine Competition is a world class competition for a world class cause. The competition benefits Camp Good Days and Special Times, a camp dedicated to bring smiles and memories to children with cancer since 2000! This year, Goose Watch received a gold medal for their 2016 Traminette, and silvers for Pinot Noir Brut Rosé, 2017 Diamond, 2016 Lemberger, Flying High Dry Cider, Flying High Semi Sweet Cider, 2017 Viognier and 2016 Riesling-Gewürztraminer.

The Great American Wine Competition provides world-class assessment and added exposure to wines with their most influential panel of judges including Masters of Wine to wine industry writers and consultants. They have also recently created The Raise A Glass Foundation (RAGF) was created to support charities around the world. Goose Watch was awarded a gold medal for their 2015 Merlot, and silver medals for their 2016 Lemberger, 2017 Traminette, and Pinot Noir Brut Rosé.

Goose Watch Winery is owned by the Peterson Family and is located at 5480 Route 89 in Romulus, NY. For more information about Goose Watch wines, awards and other information visit www.goosewatchwinery.com or call 607.403.0029.
